NATIONAL VOCATIONS AWARENESS WEEK (NVAW) BEGINNING 5 AUGUST:

National Vocations Awareness Week (NVAW) 5-12 August 2018 provides an opportunity for all Australian dioceses, parishes and schools to focus at the same time on the 'call to holiness' that arises from our Baptism, and thus to further foster a Vocations Culture across Australia.

National Vocations Awareness Week – the Church in Broken Bay needs more Priests, Deacons and Religious. Each one of us can do something about this. Firstly – pray each day. A simple prayer may be the cause of one person saying 'yes'. Secondly – talk about the possibility of a vocation to others. Lend your voice to the call of the Lord.

NEWS FROM FR JIM

This is my last weekend at Creighton University, Omaha. I have now completed the Master of Arts in Christian Spirituality which I began two years ago, and so it is bittersweet to think that I will not be returning to this wonderful community of learning and prayer. But this program of study was only ever for the purpose of being able to serve you, the people of the parish of the diocese, and I so I am eagerly making my way home to you, spending a few days visiting family and friends on the way. I will be back in the parish on the weekend of August 19th.

I have a head and a heart full of new ideas from all I have been learning, both in the classroom and also from my colleagues who are clergy, religious and lay people from around the world. Ideas though are not plans. Pastoral plans are never done in isolation, removed from the people which they serve. So, I have no new agenda or sweeping changes to propose when I return. I look forward though to seeing what may emerge as we pray, discern and work together in the coming months. Meanwhile, I know there are several significant projects which await me, and as I begin to wrap up here in Omaha I will begin to pray my focus toward them.

1. The employment of a Finance and Facilities Officer. This position has been advertised over the past few weeks and we will interview for this position when I return. This position will relieve Gail of her administrative duties of the past 12 months, and free her up to focus on adult faith formation and mission.

2. The Pastoral Council has been working this year on one of the three pillars of our parish mission statement: relationship with one another. I look forward to working with them to increase our parish's sense of community, hospitality, welcome and inclusion.

3. The Parish Finance Committee and I will present to you the financial report for the 2017-18 financial year and share with you some goals for the year ahead. I will be inviting you to contribute financially to the mission of the parish.

4. The Chatswood Catholic Precinct Committee will continue to meet as representatives of the parish and the three Catholic schools who share our site to look at what the possibilities may be for enhancing our facilities. We will be looking at the submissions you have made during the last ten weeks. If you have not yet had an opportunity to do this, please prayerfully consider what kind of parish God is calling us to be, and what facilities and resources we need to achieve this. Send your submissions in writing to the parish office.

5. With Bishop Peter now officially Archbishop of Melbourne our diocese is technically vacant. Before he left, Bishop Peter gave parish priests the faculties (permission) to confirm children in their parish this year. I look forward to sharing the sacrament of Confirmation with our children next month.

Mostly though, I look forward to sharing Sundays with you again, gathering at the Eucharist as a family does at a meal, belonging and sharing life together.

Yours sincerely - Fr Jim McKeon

What do you think God is asking of us in Australia?

Since the Plenary Council was launched across Australia at Pentecost, a lot has been happening behind the scenes to publicise the Council and to plan for as many opportunities as possible for listening and dialogue.

In Broken Bay, every parish, school and agency were asked to discern a local animator to facilitate listening and dialogue sessions and to organize the submission of the outcomes of these sessions to the Plenary Council.

Training sessions were held for all local animators on 3 & 4 August. The local animators for Chatswood are:

Sam McLean, Our Lady of Dolours Primary School

Gabrie Stojanovski, Mercy College

Donna Dempsey, St Pius X College

Gail Gill, Our Lady of Dolours Parish

LISTENING, DIALOGUE & DISCERNMENT

The Plenary Council in Australia draws inspiration from the way Pope Francis led the Synod on Families in 2014 and 2015. You may recall that he invited worldwide consultation from everyone, lay people were included in Synod gatherings and the process was one of listening and dialogue in groups. The document that resulted, Amoris Laetitia is a wonderfully pastoral document that reflects authentic listening to the lived experience of many lay people.

Before the first session of the Synod on Families, Pope Francis said to the bishops:

'You need to say all that you feel with parrhesia (boldly, candidly and without fear). And at the same time, you should listen with humility and accept with an open heart what your brothers say.'

This fresh approach to being Church is both ancient and yet fresh to us in the 21st century. The Acts of the Apostles and the Letters of Paul have examples of listening, dialogue and discernment in the early church. More recently, lay people have not always been encouraged to speak candidly and many have felt that they were not listened to.

WHAT WILL THIS MEAN?

The invitation to speak boldly, to listen humbly, to dialogue and prayerfully discern will call all of us into a time of mutual learning and support.

Very diverse opinions will no doubt emerge in the listening and dialogue groups and the temptation to judge or argue will be a real one for us. Being open to hearing the voice of the Spirit in others will be a challenge.

If we can be open to learning to listen, to dialogue and to prayerfully discern together, we will emerge as a stronger Church. Pope Francis trusts in what is known as the 'sense of the faithful' and each of us is being invited to trust that in each other.

LISTENING & DIALOGUE GROUPS

Listening and dialogue is the first stage of preparing for the Plenary Council. Everyone is invited to engage in listening and dialogue through small groups which will begin at the end of August. The groups will provide an open and inclusive experience of listening, dialogue and discernment about the future of the Catholic Church in Australia.

WOULD YOU BE A GROUP LEADER?

Each small group will need a leader to assist the groups with listening, dialogue and discernment. Formation and training will be offered on:

SATURDAY 11 AUGUST 4 – 5.15PM

OR

MONDAY 13 AUGUST, 10.30 – 11.45AM

OR

TUESDAY 14 AUGUST 7 – 8.30PM

Sign on sheets for training and formation are at the entrance of the church. You are most welcome as a volunteer group leader for whatever time you can give. gail@chatswoodparish.org.au

PREPARATION

You may like to open conversations with your family and friends, especially those who may have walked away from church. Their voices are important.

DISCERNMENT PRAYER

Lord give me the time I need for this conversation. Help me to let go of my own convenience and work to be fully present to each person.

*May I be slow to speak.
Give me the wisdom to listen quietly, to sense the meaning, positions and desires of each speaker, to know whether to be silent or to speak.*

Free me to listen without prejudice, to treat each speaker equally. Keep me considerate and kind with matters that arise, sincere in my opinions, respecting better opinions.

Let the Spirit descend upon our conversation circle with an abundance of her gifts.

*Above all, give us the greatest possible reverence and humility,
and even affectionate awe,
of the way you dwell in each of us now.
Amen.*

In 2020 and 2021, the bishops of Australia, along with other Council delegates, lay and religious will convene to make decisions about the future of the Church in Australia. Their discernment will be informed by the work of the Holy Spirit in the hearts and minds of everyone who has submitted the results of their listening, dialogue and discernment either individually or through small groups throughout Australia.

'To listen is very hard, because it asks of us so much interior stability that we no longer need to prove ourselves by speeches, arguments, statements or declarations. True listeners no longer have an inner need to make their presence known. They are free to receive, to welcome, to accept.'

Sacramental Preparation Parent Overview Meeting

Last Wednesday evening we met with parents who are about to embark on a 12 month Sacramental journey with their children, each other and all of us in our parish community.

We began by first reflecting on the first Sacrament of Initiation – Baptism – and what this means for our whole life. Then we thought more deeply about what a sacrament really is. Here are some of the points raised.

A Sacraments is;

- A gift from God
- A visible sign of Encounter with God
- Made concrete by word, gesture and elements (the stuff of creation)
- A community celebration of faith

We reflected on these points noting that God is always inviting us into communion with him by way of gift – and that during the sacramental liturgy the words of the rite, the gestures or actions of the priest and the elements like water, oils, bread, wine etc – entice all our senses and help us ‘see with the eyes of our heart’ how God is working in our lives. Therefore, a sacrament is truly a gift of faith – given to the people of faith and as such, needs to be prepared for and celebrated within the community of faith.

Catechist Ministry

Last week the Catholic Schools Office (CSO) held a two day conference titled "Sweeter Than Honey." I came away from this conference incredibly inspired and enthused. For some time, I have felt there is a missing link in what we are teaching our young people and Dr Margaret Carswell from Australian Catholic University (ACU) presented the "key" to unlocking the way we teach our children ... The Bible.... At the very heart of it, it is about the student opening the Word of God and allowing scripture to permeate their heart. It is not about us interpreting what we think they need to learn, but rather allowing the student to contemplate and ask themselves, what is it that God is trying to say. It's true, we do not need to teach our students, rather we are sharing our faith and allowing the Holy Spirit to work within the student's hearts and minds. The following excerpt is from the Sweeter Than Honey Conference webpage and is derived from Pope Francis Apostolic Exhortation in Gaudete et Exsultate....

Pope Francis in Gaudete et Exsultate

"156. The prayerful reading of God's word, which is "sweeter than honey" (Ps 119:103) yet a "two-edged sword" (Heb 4:12), enables us to pause and listen to the voice of the Master. It becomes a lamp for our steps and a light for our path (cf. Ps 119:105). As the Bishops of India have reminded us, "devotion to the word of God is not simply one of many devotions, beautiful but somewhat optional. It goes to the very heart and identity of Christian life. The word has the power to transform lives".[119] (Gaudete et Exsultate)."

If we can embrace the power of The Word and allow it to take root in our teachings, the Holy Spirit will change lives.

Reminder: Catechist Meeting

Our term 3 Catechist meeting is being held on Monday 13 August 12:30-2:30pm in the Bishop Barry Room.
Please RSVP to Jen as soon as possible.

Our 9am Family Mass is a family and child-friendly liturgy oriented to families with young children. This Mass is central to our mission of empowering parents in their role of bringing their children into relationship with God through their connection to the parish community.

There are many ways you and your child can get involved in this Mass.

- Join the Children's Liturgy of the Word
- Sing in the Children's Choir
- Older children can join the reading roster

But the best way to begin is to just turn up, see how everything unfolds – and encourage your children to get involved!

Working in a child-related ministry in the Catholic Diocese of Broken Bay

Paid and volunteer workers who have direct face to face contact with children (under 18 years) are required by law to obtain a Working with Children Check number. Please note though exemptions may apply in some cases. The Parish is the employer of the paid or volunteer worker and therefore is required by law to verify the Working with Children Check number. All paid or volunteer workers engaged in a child-related role must have a clear Working with Children Check to work in a child-related ministry. This disclosure references the legislation, Child Protection (Working with Children) Act 2012.
